

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1859.

Local Matters.

Tuesday Morning, September 13, '59.
SIXTY-THREE fugitive slaves were committed to the city prison yesterday.

GOV. HARVEY, late of Nebraska, is at the Western Hotel.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 27.—There were thirty detainees before the Recorder yesterday, of whom were sent to the chain gang.

SPECIAL MEETING.—There will be an adjourned meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen at the usual hour this evening.

PAID FOR AN ASSAULT.—J. W. Hodge was fined five dollars yesterday for assaulting Chas. Kensey, his employee.

ARMED.—Charles Sizemore armed his servant with a pistol and revolver without license before the Recorder yesterday, of whom were sent to the chain gang.

MEMPHIS GUARDS.—The Memphis Light Guards paraded in our streets yesterday afternoon. They were under command of Lieut. Geenett, and made a fine display.

HYMENAL.—Mr. Frank W. Lyon, a young gentleman desirous of a removal, offered his services to an unacquainted young lady in Cuyahoga, Indiana, on the 6th inst.

52d Col. C. M. Campbell, of the Arkansas, who has been absent from the city for a period of a month, returned to his editorial labors yesterday.

A man named Jas. F. Smith was fined twenty dollars by the Recorder yesterday for disorderly conduct and carrying concealed weapons.

A graduate of experience and steady business habits advertises for a situation book-keeper in our paper, this morning. See his card in another column.

PLANTATION SALES.—Attention is called to the advertisement of our friend, G. Nelman, of De Soto County, Miss., who offers for sale a plantation, desirable and well improved, in the country.

AN APPRAISEMENT OF EXPENSE AND STADY BUSINESS HABITS ADVERTISES FOR A SITUATION BOOK-KEEPER IN OUR PAPER, THIS MORNING. SEE HIS CARD IN ANOTHER COLUMN.

DECEASED.—Allen, the manager of the company which performed the charade act in the "The Poor Man," at the old Memphis Theater last week, had left for New Orleans, purposing to avail himself of the assistance of creating railroad bridge, which he had been offered.

The audience was very large, and we were pleased to learn that, under their present organization, schools will be more efficient than at any former time.

THE MEMPHIS THEATER.—This was the first night formally opened for the season yesterday under the more favorable auspices. The attendance yesterday was unusually large, and we were pleased to learn that, under their present organization, schools will be more efficient than at any former time.

THE MEMPHIS THEATER.—The old Welsh Inn house, which for a long time occupied the corner of Washington and Second streets, has been removed to the bayou beyond the Bayou which leads from Market street to the Cemetery, and is now handsomely improved in appearance, and will thus be occupied as a residence.

THE HORSEY CASE.—We announced on Sunday that Jerry Ryan and wife had been charged with robbing Edward Whelan of $100, and that the party would be examined by Dr. F. P. Yancey, of the U. S. Marshal's office, in Louisville. Yesterday, Dr. Yancey was well known, not only in the South, but throughout the world, as a South lecturer, and a great orator.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A suspicious-looking individual, whose name is unknown, has been prowling about the vicinity of the residence of Mr. H. Cole, of the 10th and Madison, Third streets, for some time. He was arrested last night by Mr. Owen's son, and after the alteration drew a pistol and fired at the young man. Fortunately the young man was not hit, though he received a slight wound in the shoulder. A. C. Spence, who was standing near at the time, was severely wounded, and the case was continued until this morning.

MURKIN MEDICAL COLLEGE.—The officers of this institution will open the door Monday in October. The friends of the school will be pleased to learn that the Presidency has been accepted by Prof. J. F. Yancey, of the University of Mississippi, in Louisville.

Dr. T. E. Yandell is well known, not only in the South, but throughout the world, as a South lecturer, and a great orator.

DRUGS.—A large delegation from the first department attended the funeral of Capt. Wm. H. Axon and Martin Glancy, Tuesday morning. The members of Five Company No. 6, the former having served as commander of the company.

OILS, ETC.

130 BARRELS LINSEED OIL.

15 lbs. Spruce Tar.

50 lbs. Peppermint Oil.

50 lbs. Tansy Oil.

50 lbs. Spermaceti.

50 lbs. Rosemary Oil.

50 lbs. Cypress Oil.

50 lbs. Camphor.

50 lbs. Cloves.

50 lbs. Anise.

50 lbs. Sassafras.

50 lbs. Orange Peel.

50 lbs. Lemon Peel.

50 lbs. Bergamot.

50 lbs. Rosemary.

50 lbs. Cypress.

50 lbs. Cypress.</p